Special Memories:

Though they lived just blocks apart, the couple didn't meet until a chance encounter on the Murphy Bridle Path Trail. Two years later, that serendipitous moment led to a walk down the bridal path!

On their first date at The Vig Arcadia, listening to local band Elvis Before Noon, the bride was pulled on stage to play the maracas. At the wedding, the female guests – including the bride's former TV newscaster friends – staged a "maraca flash mob" as EBN rocked the house.
