Special Memories:

The bride wore a Martina Liana gown.
Her stepfather presided over the ceremony. The couple elected to have miniature desserts instead of a cake. A barista bar was set up on the patio of the Palmera Salon for guests to enjoy during dancing and dessert. Griffin and the Gargoyles from St. Louis played late into the night, the band hailed from the groom's hometown. Brunch the morning after was enjoyed by all in the Camelview Vista Garden.
